

Kathy Hanas is the Secretary of Venice Pride, Inc. She was born, studied and lived in NJ, PA, MA. She is currently living in Venice, FL with her family including her golden retriever – Pebbles who is a therapy dog and whose Daddy won Best of Breed at Westminster in 2018.

Kathy holds an MBA and although she is retired, she volunteers full-time using her business skills in technology, project management and governance for use in non-profit boards.

Kathy is a socially-minded activist and leader in diverse arenas including community service, social media, church, youth initiatives, music, PRIDE events and pet associations. Each year, Pebbles and Kathy has joined with others in the community to honor the loss of the 49 lives in the Orlando PULSE Nightclub shooting.

Kathy is a former semi-pro softball catcher and AAU basketball player and was honored to play with Carol Blazejowski as a point guard against Ann Meyers. Kathy loves biking, singing, camping and training her dog, Pebbles who provides therapy to so many. You can expect a motivated and can-do leader that easily handles multiple LGBTQ+ issues with creativity and inclusion when you are working with Kathy.

Kathy can be reached at info@veniceFLpride.com.