

Yolanda deJesus serves as our consultant in strategic planning, website development and communications. She was born in NY but also resided and worked in NJ and NC.

She retired from a global association (428,000 members in 130 countries) where she led and held various roles in human resources, strategy, operations, organizational design, communications, learning & development and diversity & inclusion. She holds a Masters in Leadership and Communications and is an SPHR professional. Enjoys spending time with her family, grandson and dog (Kelly). Loves reading, travelling and quilting.

Yolanda can be reached at info@veniceFLpride.com.

Updated 08/27/2022